A black and white line drawing of a tea plant. It features a central stem with several large, serrated leaves. At the top of the stem is a small, round flower bud. To the left of the plant, the number '4' is written in a large, bold, black font. To the right, the word '(tea)' is written in a black, sans-serif font. There are two horizontal black lines, one above and one below the plant, which serve as answer lines for a handwriting exercise.
